The ‘Submit’ Button Isn’t In Any Law. The ANC Has Bet 181 Candidates On That.

The IEC concedes its final-submit step is written into no law. On 12 October, the ANC asked the Constitutional Court to put 181 candidates back on the ballot. Judgment is reserved, and ballot papers are already being printed.

They Left A Memorial Service Together. Four Of Them Never Got Home.

A gunman opened fire on a group walking back from a memorial in Katlehong on the night of 13 October. Seven people were shot and four have died. One suspect has handed himself over, and the Political Killings Task Team now has the case.
