ABOUT

A marketer who makes his own creative

I run paid campaigns and design the ads myself, so testing a new angle takes hours, not a brief to an agency. I've done this for a solar distributor with three branches, two community newspapers, and small brands across Southern Africa.

CASE STUDY 01 · PAID SOCIAL

99 WhatsApp leads in Zambia for R876

SED Energy was opening sales in Zambia from its Lusaka branch. I planned and ran a Meta click-to-WhatsApp campaign for a Hinen inverter and Knyee battery combo, designed the carousel, then logged and sorted every chat.

R875.80	12 days	6–17 Aug 2025	≈ R73 / day

CLIENT	SED Energy · SED Power Zambia, Lusaka

Where the R875.80 went

I watched the campaign daily. The cheapest age group was also the biggest, and cost per chat rose as the same people kept seeing the ad. That told me when to refresh the creative.

Cost per conversation by age

35–44 delivered the most chats at the lowest cost.

Budget pacing and frequency

Cost per chat rose as frequency climbed.

CHECKPOINT	SPEND	CHATS	FREQ.	COST / CHAT
Day 3 (6–8 Aug)	R194.15	34	1.80	R5.71
Day 7 (6–12 Aug)	R575.23	72	2.19	R7.99
Day 12 (6–17 Aug)	R875.80	99	2.42	R8.85

Lead quality

Every chat logged and categorised by intent, then handed to sales.

61 buying enquiries (88%) · 8 job applications / vendor pitches

WHAT I TOOK FROM IT

Templated replies for common questions, same-day callbacks for pricing and quote requests, and separate ads for single components (batteries, breakers), because people kept asking for them.

CASE STUDY 02 · ORGANIC GROWTH

Growing The Bulawayo Bulletin's audience

I run digital for a community newspaper. Every post is written like a headline, with one hook, one fact and the local stakes, and paired with a social card built to stop the scroll.

CASE STUDY 04 · MULTI-MARKET CREATIVE

One product, five markets

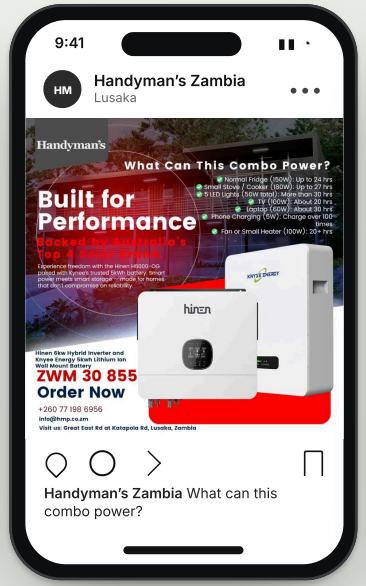

SED sold the same range through Johannesburg, Port Elizabeth and Lusaka, into Zimbabwe, and through resellers. I localised every ad: currency, contacts, address and offer. For Black Friday 2025 I packaged the range into 13 kits by buyer profile, from a R32,999 portable unit to a R194,999 premium hybrid.

Marketplace listings and the unglamorous work

Beyond ads, I listed SED's range on Amazon and Leroy Merlin, fixed the website's product data, and kept the team's email and IT running.

29	29	31	Weekly
SKUs listed on Amazon.co.za	SKUs prepared for Leroy Merlin	broken website datasheet links fixed	activity reports to management

Amazon Seller Central · order ready for handover

SED Energy store · 4 × 555W panels · customer details removed

- Wrote every listing: title, description, bullet features, dimensions, weight and media.
- Processed marketplace orders through Amazon Easy Ship.
- Audited product pages and relinked every wrong datasheet.
- Set up staff email accounts and handled in-house IT.

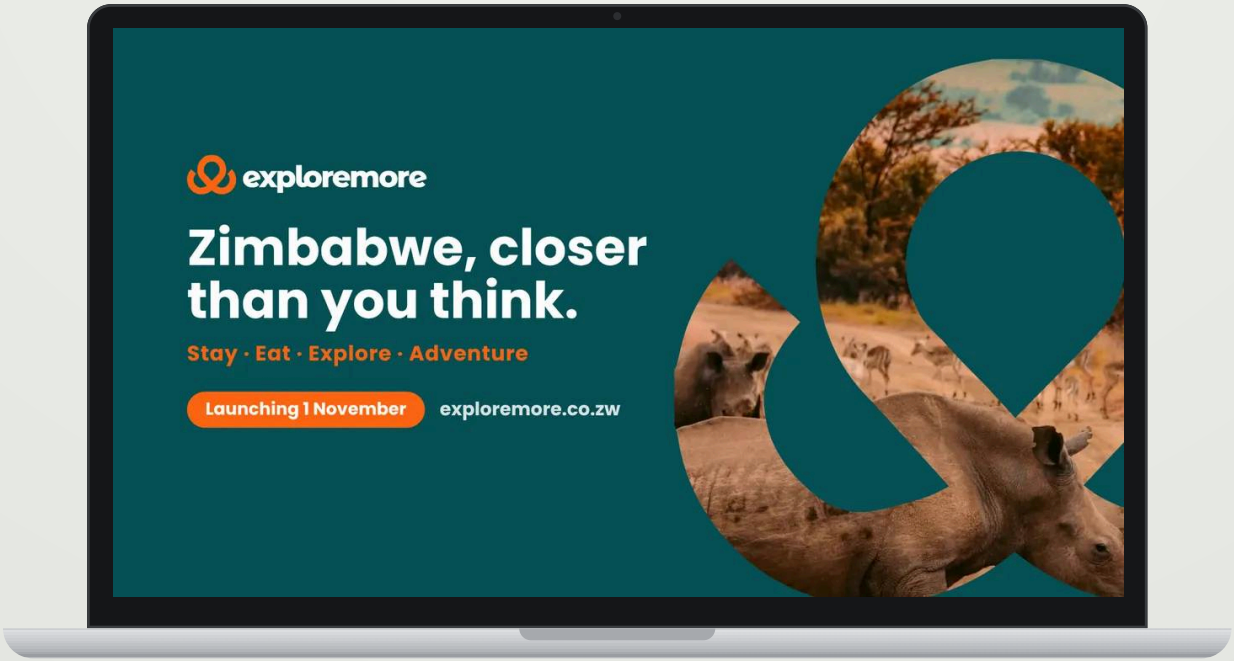

A typical week · 10–14 Nov 2025

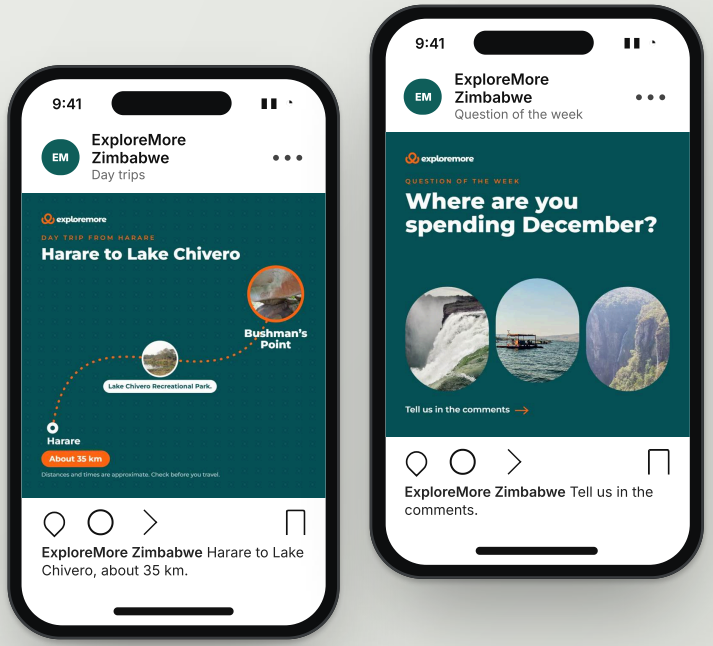

Mon	Finished the Leroy Merlin listings
Tue	8 WhatsApp promo and status designs
Wed	"Knyee 15kWh coming to Zambia" campaign
Thu	New PowerCo logo, light and dark

ExploreMore Zimbabwe launch

Thandi Mpofu hired me after I pitched a launch plan for ExploreMore, an online travel directory for Zimbabwe. I handle media buying, graphics and social. The public launch on 1 November 2026 focuses on weekend getaways from Harare.

- Wrote the soft-launch strategy deck that won the contract.
- Trust and audience first, paid ads switched on after launch.
- Voice of an established directory, not a “coming soon” startup.
- Weekly report so the client sees where every dollar goes.
